Eligibility and Application

Guidance for Individuals

Thank you for considering an application to the Maryam Najafian Foundation. Please read carefully the following guidelines to determine whether or not you are eligible to apply. Details on the kind of information we are looking for in each section of the application form are also outlined below.

The Maryam Najafian Foundation's Charitable Purposes

The Maryam Najafian Foundation was established for the following charitable purposes:

1. The prevention or relief of poverty
2. The advancement of education
3. Providing recreational facilities or organising recreation activities with the aim of improving the conditions of life for the people for whom the facilities or activities are mainly intended.
4. The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

You must be able to show how your application relates to at least one of these purposes.

Eligibility

Applications to the Maryam Najafian Foundation are invited from:

- Individuals who are resident in Scotland and can demonstrate need within at least one of the Foundation's stated purposes.
- Charitable organisations working within Scotland who address at least one of the Foundation's stated purposes.
- Young people up to the age of 30 years, and organisations which support or provide opportunities for this demographic, to fulfil their potential in cultural, educational and social aspects of their lives; including achievement of sustainable long term employment.

Awards Process

The Maryam Najafian Foundation is a small charity.

The typical size of an award to an individual falls between £100-£1000. For groups/organisations, the typical size of an award is £200-£2000, and is unlikely to exceed £3000.

The Maryam Najafian Foundation meets quarterly to consider applications. Deadlines for applications throughout the year are the last day in March, June, September and December.

Completing the Application Form

The application form is your chance to tell us about yourself and how an award from the Foundation would make a difference to your life. Please try and answer each question as openly and honestly as you can.

- Please complete the form in black ink.
- If a section does not apply to you, please mark 'not applicable' (n/a).
- Please observe word limits. However, if you run out of space in any section, continue your answer on a separate sheet of paper.
- If you are providing any supporting documentation, please use copies rather than originals.

N.B. There is a separate application form for organisations, which can be found on the Foundation's website.

1. Applicant contact details.

Please provide up-to-date contact details. If you are applying on behalf of someone else, please let us know.

2. Have you received an award from the Maryam Najafian Foundation before?

Please inform us if you have received funds from the Maryam Najafian Foundation before. This will not automatically preclude your application this time.

3. Please enter the purpose(s) your application relates to.

Remember, your application must demonstrate relevance to at least one of the Foundation's charitable purposes. In sections 4, 5 and 6, you should try to highlight how your application relates to the purpose(s) you have selected.

4. Tell us why you are applying to the Maryam Najafian Foundation and the specific need or disadvantage you intend to address. (max 250 words)

Please tell us about your personal circumstances. Help us to understand why you are eligible to receive an award from the Maryam Najafian Foundation.

5. Tell us how you plan to address the identified need and how a grant from the Maryam Najafian Foundation will support this course of action. (max 250 words)

In this section, we are looking for specific details on how you would use an award from the Foundation.

6. If you receive a grant from the Maryam Najafian Foundation, tell us what outcomes you hope to achieve and how you will know progress is being made. (max 250 words)

Think about how an award would impact on your life. What kind of outcomes would you hope to achieve with the assistance of the Foundation?

7. Please provide a breakdown of the costs of your funding request. (Include VAT where it applies.)

Please give as much detail as possible on the costs the award would be used to meet. Where appropriate, the Foundation may request receipts as a condition of the award.

8. Additional funding

a) What is the total cost of the project/action?

If the amount requested from the Foundation does not meet the full cost of the proposed action/project, please tell us the total cost.

b) How will you meet the additional costs of the project/action, e.g. with existing funds, in-kind contribution or an award from another funding body? Please provide details.

Let us know how you will meet the total cost of the project/action. If you are applying to other funding bodies, for example, please give us details on their name(s), the amount requested and when you will receive a decision. In such cases, we may request proof of other sources of funding before granting an award.

9. Are you providing supporting documentation with your application?

You may wish to include a supporting letter from a third-party who knows you in a formal capacity, e.g. social worker, college tutor, healthcare worker or sports coach. Please provide details of the documentation, such as your relationship to the person supporting your application.

10. How did you hear about the Maryam Najafian Foundation?

Please tell us how you became aware of the Foundation. This will help us to enhance our own communications and outreach.

11. Are you willing to complete an end of award report?

In order to improve our work and tell our supporters all about the difference they are making, we would like feedback on the impact of our awards. We will provide a template for the report and would request its completion around 6 months after the award has been made.

12. Declaration.

Please read over the application and ensure all the information you have provided is accurate.
